The Department of Political Science in Dhruba Chand Halder College organized a one day International Webinar on Refugee Crisis in South Asia for our students to assure their better knowledge. Duration of Webinar was for two hours with renowned speakers on this field. The coordinator of this Webinar was Dr. Manika Rakshit, Head, Dept. of Political Science. All the interested students of the department participated and successfully completed this Webinar.

- Date : 6th September, 2020
- Online Platform: Google Meet
- Title : Refugee Crisis in South Asia
- Type of Programme : International Webinar
- Details of Resource Person: Dr Sabyasachi Basu Ray Chaudhury, He is the present Vice Chancellor & Professor, Dept. of Political Science, Rabindra Bharati University and Mr. Saleem Samad, he is the Eminent Journalist, Bangladesh.
- Topic of Discussion: Through the global refugee crisis is often framed as a Western problem, developing countries host 85% of the world's displaced population. South Asia roughly three million refugees and their long-term presence brings enormous challenges. South Asia's history of colonialism, low economic development and intra- and inter-state conflicts have contributed to the large-scale refugee movement and the lack of capacity to address the problem. This topic examines the history, current activity and political for regional co-operation in South Asia to address the issue.
- Number of Participants : 91
- Outcome of the programme: It was an extremely successful event. Students opened up and spoke about various issues of refugee, migrants etc. The challenge is to make them talk about the refugee crisis which remains unheard and un-discussed. The students learned more about this topic in detail and then enriched themselves further by getting the speaker various questions and satisfactory answers on this topic. The students have participated in this event with great enthusiasm and our goal of enriching the students in more thematic fields has been largely achieved.
