Dhruba Chand Halder College, about five-minutes' walk from Dakshin Barasat railway station, on the Sealdah-Lakshmikantapur- Namkhana section, a co-educational institution, affiliated to the University of Calcutta, was established in 1965, by a group of dedicated social workers of the locality, for imparting education to students belonging primarily to the socially and economically backward classes of the Sunderban belt.

In the initial years, classes were held in Shibdas Acharya High School but in 1968, the college started functioning from its present site. Expansion in all branches has been instrumental in shaping its present stature.

This college was set up with financial contributions by two philanthropists- Dr. Dhruba Chand Halder (in whose memory the college has been re- named), a socially conscious physician hailing from Gocharan, and Baruni Devi, a kind hearted woman of Malighat village.

Under the leadership of Sri Sailendranath Halder, our founder Principal, three main streams of study, viz. Arts, Science and Commerce were set up, which soon became full-fledged units.

At present, the college also offers Post Graduate courses in different subjects, through its study centres affiliated to the Rabindra Bharati University (DDE) and Netaji Subhas Open University.

VISION AND MISSION

At Dakshin Barasat in South 24 Parganas, Dhruva Chand Halder College unfolds a vision of its own, giving priority to the needs, aspirations and spirit of the local inhabitants. Though “education” is our main “mantra”, we do not encourage mere book-learning and writing examination papers. Our dream is to deliver value-based education, which, in the long run, makes “real men and women” (a concept initiated by Swami Vivekananda), and not just money-minded individuals. For this, the college fosters act of kindness, service and sacrifice in the students. We envisage a kind of education that would help young learners realize their inner strength and potentialities and know their own selves inside out: “Bear no hatred, sow the seeds of love and friendship,” is the message we send out to our students, so that we can contribute, though in a small way, to the formation of a better society.

The effective use of distance learning technology and implementing it in our academic curriculum is an integral part of our mission. Our endeavor is to improve the teaching-learning-research association of this college. We also wish to maintain a naturally beautiful campus, fostering ecological balance.

• NAAC ACCREDITATION

The College has been Re-accredited (Cycle-II) by the National Assessment and Accreditation Council in 2016 with CGPA of 2.59 on seven-point scale at B+ grade (Accredited).

DR. DHRUBA CHAND HALDER

A GREAT SOCIAL WORKER

Dr. Dhruba Chand Halder (1898 - 1968)

In the early 1960s, a group of young educated people came forward and took great pains to establish the college. Dr. Dhruba Chand Halder, a physician & Smt. Baruni Devi, a widow of a neighbouring village, donated generously and Mr. Nanda Kishore Ghosh, a former member of the C.U. Senate, helped to get C.U. affiliation.

Dr. Halder hailed from Srikrishnanagar village, 4 km from the Gocharan railway station. After passing the Matriculation examination he joined the National Medical School. To provide medical treatment to the people, he opened a dispensary at Harrison Road (now M.G. Road) in a rented house where patients from his village and the nearby villages went for treatment. He provided shelter to many needy students and planned to establish a nursing home and a hostel for poor students. He devoted himself to disseminate higher education among the less privileged youth of South 24 Parganas.

He offered his savings spontaneously to build a college near his home with the help of Sudhanshu Sekhar Gayen, a young government employee, and a band of young and energetic social workers. Dr. Halder died in 1968. In accordance with his will, all his property was sold and the accrued money was deposited as donation to the college fund. After his death, Dakshin Barasat College was renamed "Dhruba Chand Halder College" in recognition of his contribution.

BARUNI DEVI

The Noble Lady

Baruni Devi

Baruni Devi, a child widow of the Malighat village, contributed much to the establishment of the present Dhruba Chand Halder College. She became instrumental in bringing the light of education to the eager students of her time. A humanitarian to the core, she also contributed a lot to the setting-up of the 'Padmer Haat' hospital, as well as bringing up a few orphan children. In memory of her, the boy's hostel of Dhruba Chand Halder College is named -'Baruni Devi Chhatrabas'. The college shall remain indebted to this great lady forever.

Late Prof. Sailendranath Halder

Our Founder Principal

Late Professor Sailendranath Halder
(29.06.1929 - 15.08.2011)

The Founder Principal (from 23.08.1965 to 31.07.1996) of Dhruba Chand Halder College dreamt of a General Degree College that will excel in imparting true education to its students for their all-round development.

With a group of 120 students, he made a humble beginning. His ambition was fulfilled during his tenure, with his ingenious effort, sincere attention and heartfelt devotion to the college.

His absence is an irreparable loss for this college and also for the society at large.
