2020 : IMPROVING SPOKEN ENGLISH

OBJECTIVE :

The students of Dhruba Chand Halder College appear weak, when it comes to reading or writing or speaking English. Though they fare well in the written part of the competitive examinations, they are unable to do well in the interviews and oral sessions. The faculties of the Department of English were aware of this problem and they felt it necessary to train a handful of students in this area, so that they could be equipped to face some of the challenges outside their classrooms. Hence, they designed a course that would be beneficial for the students.

SYLLABUS :

The syllabus included a revision of basic English Grammar, reading short stories and comprehension silently, and then reading aloud; reading poems silently and then aloud; creative writing; speaking on different topics related to the everyday life; formal and informal ways of speaking.

OUTCOME :

The students enjoyed their classes on English Grammar, as they could respond spontaneously, which boosted their self-confidence a great deal. Reading stories and poems aloud, gave them the pleasure of enjoying literature. At the same time, emphasis on correct pronunciation and improving the vocabulary helped the students to communicate with ease and confidence.
