Sub: Derestvation of 280 resrved seats in 1st semester undergraduate courses for the academic session 2021-22

Dear Sir/ Madam,

This is for your information that Dhruba Chand Halder College is catering the needs of higher education for about fifty five years to the students of a rural, underdeveloped and backward area appearing mostly as first generation learners. The college offers Honours courses and General courses in all three streams of humanities, science and commerce. We follow the reservation policy of the Government of West Bengal in its truespirit.

This year, we have already offered two opportunities to the aspirant students to apply online for admission to the seats approved by University of Calcutta. Admission portal was opened, second time, mainly to invite application online from candidates belonging to the reserved categories. In spite of all efforts to admit students in all the seats, number of seats reserved for Scheduled Tribe and few seats for Scheduled Caste and Other Backward Classes, mentioned in the summary given below, are remaining vacant till now due to non-availability of applicants. A summary of subject wise and category wise vacancies is given below.

It is worth mentioning here that good numbers of applicants from unreserved category are still waiting for an admission in our college. This is our sincere appeal to your good self to de-reserve the vacant 280 seats meant for reserved category students, for this session, so that general students can take admission. Hope you will consider our appeal by de-reservation of reserved seats falling vacant till now for this session only.

Dear Sir/ Madam,

This is for your information that Dhruba Chand Halder College is a rural college in the district of South 24 Parganas, catering the needs of higher education for about fifty five years to the students of an underdeveloped and backward area appearing mostly as a first generation learner. The college offers all three streams of humanities, science and commerce with sixteen Honours courses and three General courses. At the beginning of every academic session, we offer admission opportunity to about 4245 students comprising of reserved and unreserved categories. We incorporate the reservation policy of the Govt in its true spirit.

This year, we have already offered two opportunities to the aspirant students to apply online for admission to the seats approved by University of Calcutta. Admission portal was opened, second time, mainly to invite application online from candidates belonging to the reserved categories. In spite of all efforts to admit students in all the seats, considerable number of seats reserved for Scheduled Tribe and few seats for Scheduled Caste and Other Backward Classes are remaining vacant till now due to non availability of applicants. A summary of subject wise and category wise vacancies is given below.
