2021 : ENGLISH LANGUAGE PROFICIENCY COURSE

OBJECTIVE :

The students of Dhruba Chand Halder College studying different courses specially in the Science stream, are proficient in their subjects of study, but weak in English. As a result, their powers of comprehension, understanding and expression suffer in and outside their classrooms. The faculties of the various departments felt that they had the potentiality of doing well if they were given proper guidance. Hence, the faculties of the Department of English embarked upon the idea of designing a short course for them so that they could improve their Spoken English skill.

SYLLABUS :

The syllabus designed for them stressed on the basic concepts of English Grammar, Construction of short and simple sentences, Pronunciation, Intonations and Diction, Dialogues and Short Speeches, Reading short stories and Poems, Comprehension.

OUTCOME :

At the initial stage, students appeared shy and out of place. But, as classes progressed, they got the opportunity of brushing up their knowledge of English Grammar, becoming spontaneous in their responses and communication. At the end of the course, they appeared confident to face the challenge of communicating in English in the outside world.
